2. Students will be required to bring their devices when they come to school, and compulsory to bring back home after the school.
3. While the school will provide a guideline for our dear parents about the specs, brands, place to purchase, and technical support.
4. This approach will relieve parents from maintenance payments for the school-owned devices, and will instead allow them to own the child's device.
Our parents can just purchase the device once, and the student can enjoy using it across the year without the need to pay for a yearly service.
5. The school will put in a system and software to make sure that the device is suitable for the student's age and needs.
6. Once the student finishes his/her learning journey in the school, the IT Department will pull back this configuration and give the device back to the student.
